Danville

Death of Mrs. P. H. McDonald, A Church and Social Worker—Big Grange Meeting.

(Myrtle S. Bartlett, Correspondent.)
The entire community is saddened and nearly everyone feels a personal loss in the death of Mrs. P. H. McDonald which occurred Tuesday afternoon, Jan. 4, after only a few days illness of pneumonia. Greatly interested in the church and social life of the town and always giving of her time and talents in all good causes, her place will be hard to fill. Sarah Bagby, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bagby, was born at Cincinnati, Ohio, April 5, 1855. Soon after her birth her parents came to Vermont and most of her life was spent in Danville. She attended the St. Johnsbury academy and later was a successful school teacher. In January 1887 she was united in marriage to Plyn H. McDonald. Two children were born to them, Martin R. and (Gladys) Mrs. Delmer Smith. She was a member of the Danville church and had been active in a number of the choir for 30 in all branches of its work. She had years and her rich contralto voice was always much enjoyed there, as well as at entertainments in which she was always willing to assist. She was a charter member of Danville Green Tentacle, Pythian Sisters, and served as its first most excellent chief. She had held various offices in the Grand Temple and at the time of her death was supreme representative to the supreme Temple, an office holding four years. In 1914 she attended the Supreme Temple held in Winthrop. She was also a member of Harmony Music club and of the B. B. club. She was a woman with a sweet winning personality and with her accomplishments she graced any circle. She was an ideal wife and mother and her home was a very hospitable one. She leaves besides her husband and two children, a granddaughter, one sister, Mrs. Louise Kendall of Los Angeles, Cal., and one brother, George Bagby, of Danville. The funeral was held at the house Friday afternoon and was very largely attended. There were many beautiful floral offerings from friends and the various societies. Her pastor, Rev. C. A. Adams officiated, assisted by Rev. M. H. Sharples. The Pythian Sisters and the Knights of Pythias attended in a body and acted as escort to the grave.

Madam Macdonald who has been ill since 1913 is slowly improving. Silas J. Morse of Shelburne, N. H., was called here to attend the funeral of his brother, Wallace Morse. He was accompanied by his daughter, Miss Lillie Morse.

The topic of the pastor's sermon at the Congregational church next Sunday morning is "The Worth of a Goal." The C. E. meeting will be led by C. H. Dole. The topic is "How to Work with Others."

The meeting of the Danville Grange, Tuesday, Jan. 4, was the largest and most enthusiastic that has been held for years. The officers for 1916 were installed in a most impressive manner by State Master, W. N. Cady of Middlebury, assisted by Miss Jennie Bell of Walden. Following the installation ceremony a chicken pie supper was served to the gathering. The post-prandial exercises were in charge of the Rev. C. A. Adams who introduced as speakers, Willis N. Cady, Prof. F. B. Jenks of the agricultural department of Vermont university and E. H. Morin, supervisor of the Vermont cow-testing association. J. Leslie Hardy, the new master of Danville Grange, begins his duties at the next meeting, Tuesday, Jan. 18. An interesting lecturer's program will be provided.

A large hen hawk which weighed over five pounds was shot by the 15-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Merton Rodgers.

Mrs. Stickney, the trained nurse, who has been at P. H. Macdonald's, returned Saturday to her home in St. Johnsbury.

Dole; treasurer, Asa Wesson; collector of taxes, A. E. Currier; chief engineer, W. F. McCormick; first assistant engineer, C. W. Bartlett; second assistant engineer, L. Plant; superintendent, W. H. Case; auditors, C. E. Libbey, M. M. Stocker, W. A. Hoyt.

Harmony Music club will hold its first gentlemen's night at the home of Mrs. J. E. Tinker on Friday evening. Each member is requested to be prepared to give a current event in response to the roll call. Each member has the privilege of inviting one guest.

At the Methodist church last Sunday morning the pastor gave a communion address. Three people were united with the church on confession of faith and two were taken in on probation. In the evening a very interesting meeting was held with special music with a large attendance. The Sunday school contest which is being held between the young peoples class will close Jan. 30. The mid-week service will be held with Mrs. Helen Wilson.

GET RID OF RACKING LA GRIEPE COUGH—IT WEAKENS
For the severe racking cough that comes with la-grippe, Foley's Honey and Tar Compound is wonderfully healing and soothing. It eases the tightness over the chest, raises the phlegm easily and helps the racking, tearing cough that is so exhausting and weakening. R. G. Collins, ex-postmaster, Barnegat, N. J., says: "Foley's Honey and Tar Compound soon stopped the severe la-grippe cough that completely exhausted me. It can't be beat." C. C. BINGHAM.

VILLAGE MEETING

Only 57 Votes Cast—Band Gets $1,000 Appropriation—Tax Rate Same As Last Year.

Only 57 ballots were cast at the annual village meeting held last Wednesday and only about that number of voters were present when the business of the meeting was taken at 1:30 in the afternoon. Everything was carried as recommended by the trustees except the annual appropriation for the band which was made $1,000 instead of $500. The appropriations for the year are as follows:—

Highways and Macadam, $9,000; street lighting, $6,500; fire department, $8,500; water works, $2,000; general, $3,500; police, $3,000; sewers, $1,000; parks, $500; hydrants, $1,100; arrears, $2,000; stable, $2,000; sidewalks, $2,000; band concerts, $1,000; total, $42,100.

A tax of 60 cents on a dollar of the grand list was voted and it was voted that the trustees oil the streets the coming summer at an expense not to exceed $2,000.

In the 57 ballots cast for village officers no candidate received less than 53 votes and none more than 55.

HE COULD HARDLY GO
"About two years ago I got down on my back until I hardly could go," writes Solomon Bequette, Flat River, Mo. "I got a 50c box of Foley Kidney Pills and they straightened me right up." Common symptoms of kidney trouble are backache, headache, rheumatic pains, soreness and stiffness, puffiness under eyes, blurred vision, sleep disturbing bladder troubles, and a languid, tired feeling. Foley Kidney Pills help to eliminate the poisonous waste matter that causes these symptoms. C. C. BINGHAM.
